A HOLIDAY.

To-morrow, being New Year's Day, will be observed as a public holiday. The Government offices will all be closed. The DAILY BUL-LETIN office intends closing, too, so that there will be no issue of the paper.

QUEEN KAPIOLANI'S BIRTHDAY.

To-day is the 52nd anniversary of Queen Kapiolani's birth, and all Government offices are closed in honor of the occasion. All classes of the community, native and foreign, unite in sincere wishes for the happiness, continued health, and long life of the good and unostentatious Queen. Her characteristic concern for her people, and practical sympathy with their sufferings and sorrows, have secured for the Queen a strong hold on the affections of her people. The foreigners, too, domiciled under the clear skies of

Hawaii, recognise in Queen Kapiolani a good and noble woman, whose life and character merit their respect and admiration. The spontaneous wish of every man, woman, and child in the land possessed of heart and soul, is expressed in the words,

"Long and happily live the Queen Kapiolani!"

THE NEW YEAR.

Standing as we are at this hour, on the very brink of an outgoing year, and about to step forward on the threshold of another year, we feel, and no doubt many of our readers do also, that there is time to reflect, before the life-ebbing year has vanished.

It is not our purpose at this critical moment to elaborate at length on what has passed, taking a retrospective view of the eventful year, (for eventful it has been to us all) but rather let us try to forget what we have done wrong, and continue to repeat, and if possible, to improve upon, what we may have done aright. While wars and rumors of wars are pending in the old world, we ought to be thankful that our lot is cast on these pacific isles.

Though peace and plenty have apparently prevailed throughout the Archipelago, yet has there not been unseen poverty and suffering in our midst? That greatest of all virtues, charity, has been exercised to a large extent in this city, and should the occasion of pressing needs arise in 1887, as it did in 1886, we believe that a similar virtue would again be displayed.

As the year 1886 vanishes into the darkness of the Abyss of the Past, let his faults be "not remembered in his epitaph." In handing this last number of the DAILY BULLETIN for 1886 to the public, we wish them all,

A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

The Queen's Reception.

Her Majesty Queen Kapiolani held a reception to-day, from 11 A. M. to 2 P. M. At 11, members of the Royal Family and the high officials of the Government were received. At 11:30, the Diplomatic and Consular corps presented their respects to Her Majesty. The Captain and officers of the Chilean corvette Pilcomayo, now in port, and Government officials, were received at 12. The general public were allotted the time from 12:30 to 2 o'clock.

The attendance of the general public was large and included the elite of Honolulu Society.

A Treat to St. Andrew's Sunday School Children.

MR. AND MRS. SCHAEFER, HOST AND HOSTESS.

F. A. Schaefer, Esquire, and Mrs. Schaefer, entertained, at their residence on Nuuanu Valley, yesterday afternoon, the juveniles who comprise the St. Andrew's Sunday School. The weather was charming, the sun shining brightly, its rays being tempered by a moderate breeze. The scene was of a most joyous character, and the girls and boys appeared to be exhilarated over the enjoyment so bountifully provided for them. The tea party was presided over by the affable hostess, Mrs. Schaefer, and the picture presented by the children who gathered around the hospitable board of the varied and light delectables, was such as to cause a glow in the hearts of parents. Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer were most assiduous in their attentions to the juveniles' wants. The Royal Hawaiian Band was, by the courtesy of Governor Iauka, placed at the disposal of the host, and played during the afternoon, light and melodies airs suitable to the occasion, thereby adding greatly to the enjoyment of all present. The happy children were overjoyed at the outdoor treat and refection so thoughtfully provided for them.

VOYAGE OF THE SCHOONER MALOLO.

G. B. HOLLAND, MASTER.

Sailed from Honolulu, for Fanning's Island, Oct. 12th, at 5 P. M. Experienced light E.S.E. winds until arrival at Fanning's Island, Oct. 22nd, at 5:30 P. M., 10 days from Honolulu. Learned that the Jennie Walker had sailed for Honolulu on Oct. 5th. Left again at 7 P. M., the same evening. Arrived at Washington Island the following day at 9 A. M., sailing again for the island of Palmyra at 11 A. M., arriving there at 8 A. M. the next morning. Took in freight and return labor, and sailed the following afternoon at 4 P. M., bound for Penrhyn Island. After a tedious passage of 15 days, arrived at Penrhyn Nov. 8th, having experienced thick squally weather the whole passage. After paying off return laborers, sailed for the island of Rakahanga, Nov. 11th, arriving there at midnight on Nov. 13th. Paid off return laborers and sailed for the island of Manihiki on Nov. 15th, arriving there the same evening. Remained at Manihiki over night, sailing again for Rakahanga on the afternoon of the 16th, arriving there at midnight. Having shipped 4 men at Rakahanga sailed the following morning for the Hervey group. Experienced thick squally weather until arrival at the island of Mauki, Nov. 25th, at 9 P. M. Remained there two days. Not being able to obtain any labor, left for the island of Mangia, arriving there at 7 P. M. on the last day of November. Left there on the following morning, not being able to obtain any labor. Arrived at Rarotonga, Friday, Dec. 3rd, at 6 P. M., being too late to enter the harbor, stood off and on all night. At 8 A. M. the following morning, the pilot came out and took the vessel into port. Took in firewood and filled water casks; and shipped 22 men. Left Rarotonga Dec. 6th, at 5 P. M., for the island of Aitutaki, arriving there the following afternoon. Left again the next afternoon, having shipped 31 men, (making a total of 57 men shipped), bound for Honolulu. Experienced light E. and N.E. winds until Dec. 26th. Lay becalmed off Hawaii till the evening of the 27th, when had light S. and S.E. winds to port.

Tried to fetch at Starbuck Island, having heard that there were 4 shipwrecked seamen on the island, but owing to head winds, could not fetch it.

YET ANOTHER XMAS FESTIVAL.

The annual Christmas festival of the Sunday school of the Bethel Union Congregation, postponed last week, on account of the rain, came off last evening, at the Lyceum, and was of a character highly satisfactory to all concerned. The proceedings opened with a short programme of vocal and instrumental music in which the children of the Sunday school took the principal share. There was a large attendance, the room being well filled by the young people and their parents and friends.

Entering the building, everyone's attention was arrested by a quaint old-fashioned rustic looking porch, with half-blinded window and brick chimney, on the platform. The whole structure was artistically covered over, as with a recent fall of snow. The representation was verified by all who have lived in northern latitudes as admirably true to the reality. At the close of the musical programme, the jingle of a bell was heard in the distance, when a well-got-up Santa Claus entered by a side door, with a ladder which he placed against the little cot, climbed up and went bodily down the chimney. Immediately the door of the cot opened, Santa came forth, and proceeded to unload a stock of candy, a bag of which was given to every juvenile and adult member of the Sunday school department of the congregation.

The success of the entertainment reflected very great credit upon all who had any hand in it, particularly Mrs. Oggel who superintended the preparatory arrangements.

New Mail Arrangements on the Atlantic.

The Honolulu News says: The negotiations which have been proceeding between the Postmaster-General of Great Britain and the Atlantic Steamship companies, for the conveyance of the American mails, have resulted in an arrangement being made of a temporary character, by which Queenstown will be retained as a port of call for two out of three of the weekly outgoing steamers. The Postmaster-General in June last issued a circular stating that the agreements then in force would terminate on Dec. 1. The despatch of the mails three times a week, namely, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, from London, and on the following days from Queenstown, having been found the most convenient for all parts of the kingdom, it was proposed to give preference to ships calling at Queenstown; but instead of entering into agreements extending over long periods, it was proposed to take up month by month, or quarter by quarter, the most efficient vessels sailing from Liverpool, via Queenstown, to New York on the days above mentioned, the remuneration to be a payment per voyage at the rate of 3s per pound for letters and post cards, and 3d. per pound of newspapers, printed papers, and patterns or samples. For vessels not calling at Queenstown the remuneration will be 1s. 8d. per pound for letters and post cards, and 1d. per pound for other articles, these being for bulk rates equivalent to the rates per letter or paper ordinarily paid for the conveyance of ship letter mails. In October a joint offer was made by the Cunard and White Star Companies to despatch on two days only at the new rates, under exclusive privilege, precluding transmission of mails by other lines unless by special address in the ship named. The Post Office refused this proposal, on the ground that the two despatches were not sufficient. A third despatch was then offered from Liverpool to Boston every Tuesday, the monopoly being still maintained. As the Boston route was regarded as being carried on by slower steamers, the authorities refused acceptance on the ground that the Tuesday mails might be outstripped by the faster Thursday mails. The Post Office, has, therefore, fallen back on other offers, and arrangements have been made for preventing any break in the continuity of the three services per week. The Cunard and White Star Companies will not carry the mails under the new arrangement. The reconstructed Inman Company, which is said to have the intention of adding to its fleet of fast-speed vessels, made an offer, which has been accepted, to carry on the terms required, the Tuesday mail from Liverpool and Queenstown. The North German Lloyd steamers, which are available under the Postal Convention, and are Greenock built, of very fast speed, will convey the Thursday mails from Southampton direct to New York, and the Saturday mails will be carried by the Guion steamers, which include in their number the Alaska and the Arizona. These offers have been provisionally accepted for three months, the authorities hoping that that other ships will be in the field, and that the monopoly will be entirely broken down. In the meantime they possess the freedom of sending mails by any fast ships sailing from any port, which would have been denied to them under the exclusive tenders submitted by the Cunard and White Star Companies. By the new arrangement nine out of the twelve fastest Atlantic steamers are, we believe, available for the postal service with America; and the German-Lloyd steamers will await the Thursday night mail out of London. Another result of the new arrangement is to effect a saving of 25 percent. The Post Office, however, has not considered economy as the basis of the change, but efficiency of postal conveyance.
